Re: New Underwriting Counsel

Date: March 13, 2007

Old Republic Title is pleased to announce that Laura Licastro has joined our Florida underwriting staff. Laura comes to Old Republic from a management group that included a title insurance agency, 1031 division and a property management company, where she acted as General Counsel for the full-service real estate company.

Laura received her B.S. from MIT and was an aerospace engineer prior to attending law school. She received her J.D. degree from Pace University School of Law in White Plains, New York.

She is a member of the New York and Florida Bar Associations.

Laura will be located in our Tampa office and is immediately available to assist our agents.
