

never bet on the hare

Old Republic Title Insurance Group
2009 Annual Report

sure. We've all heard the story. Overconfident hare. Determined tortoise. Problem is, even though the story's been around for 2,500 years, people still put their money on the hare, and...well, you know how that turns out. Not here at Old Republic Title. We've run on our solid, tried-and-true core values for over 100 years. We stay the course no matter what the economic conditions. It may not be flashy, but last year we experienced one of our best years of growth ever. And that's no fable.

endurance

There's no question the hare is quick, but does it have the endurance to go the distance? History says "no." Despite the obstacles and hurdles of a troubled economy, Old Republic Title continued to grow larger and stronger. In 2009, our share of the commercial market increased significantly, and we nearly doubled our overall market share. Life isn't a sprint but an endurance race, and Old Republic Title has proven that it has the strength and stamina of a winner.

persistence

Unlike the hare, we don't stop for every carrot we see. We set goals and persist in reaching them. For over a century, Old Republic Title has been steadily moving forward, forging ahead through economic ups and downs, avoiding financial pitfalls and sticking to our principles. Does persistence pay off? Since 1992, Old Republic Title has been the highest rated title insurer in the nation.

conviction

Capturing the lead and keeping it is as much about conviction and mindset as it is about conditioning. While some might call “staying the course” old fashioned, we know the long-term benefits of ethical business practices, attention to detail and standing by our obligations. There are no shortcuts to success, just hard work, integrity, and excellent products and services.

confidence

To be a winner, you have to believe you can win. The tortoise would never have crossed the finish line first if he didn't have faith in a positive outcome. At Old Republic Title we are confident in our abilities. This is reflected in the confidence independent agents have in our Company. Despite the economy last year, we tripled the number of agents working with us, enhancing our ability to provide exceptional underwriting expertise and services.

The moral? Embrace your inner tortoise.

2009 Results

Unprecedented recovery from the challenges of 2008

Although 2009 continued to present challenges to the Old Republic Title Insurance Group (ORTIG) and the entire title insurance industry, record low mortgage interest rates provided greater transactional volume. Refinance origination volume increased 77% over 2008 and real estate sales transactions increased over 2008 volumes, albeit more modestly. These increases offset new home construction sales, which fell 22% from the prior year. Despite many challenges, the ORTIG capitalized on several opportunities during 2009, which put us in a position to significantly leverage the benefits of improving conditions in the national real estate market; the effects of which allowed us to post a $2 million pre-tax operating profit versus a $46 million loss as reported in 2008. The $48 million reversal in performance reinforces our strategy of steady, conservative, long-term, selective growth, resulting in a strong balance sheet during these difficult economic times.

Our continued emphasis on title insurance agent relationships resulted in significant growth in our agency network, which is now approaching 10,000 independently owned title agents. This growth resulted in a 32% increase in premium revenue over 2008's results. The majority of the growth in our agency network occurred in the Eastern United States, the most evident increase being in the state of Florida.

In July, we entered into a joint venture with Attorneys' Title Insurance Fund (ATIF) and created Attorneys' Title Fund Services, LLC, with headquarters in Orlando, Florida. ATIF was a dominant title insurer in Florida. In furtherance of supplementing agency growth, we also opened offices in several new markets.

Net Premiums & Fees/Claim Costs
(In Millions)

Our operations in the Western United States experienced the largest, unparalleled turnaround in the Company's history. This turnaround was a consequence of our dedication to profitable market share growth and conservative expense management, resulting in a 46% increase in revenue over 2008's results.

2009 also saw exceptional growth from the ORTIG's non-title service divisions, including our Default Management Services (DMS) unit, which was strategically positioned to assist lenders faced with an unprecedented inventory of default properties. Technology offerings continued to grow as well. We now own the majority of RamQuest Software. RamQuest applications are among the best in the industry, as demonstrated by RamQuest's ability to record the second highest annual revenue in its history.

Finally, 2009 culminated in the ORTIG'S market share almost doubling from recent historical trends as we approached 10% of the national market.

Our independent ratings, which are proudly displayed below, remain the highest in the industry. For 17 years we have held this distinction. Our financial strength, conservative management philosophy, commitment of our employees and agents, and the dedication to conducting business within our core principles, support an exemplary claims-paying ability.

The improvements in 2009 confirm the soundness of the ORTIG's steady and deliberate strategy of building a better company through integrity, ethics and honest relationships. That strategy will continue to ensure that the ORTIG will be appropriately positioned in the national real estate market to best service its agents and customers.

While rapid improvement over 2009 is not anticipated, many of the opportunities initiated during 2009 will continue to enhance performance in 2010. The increase in market share will continue in 2010, resulting in greater revenue and more profitable operating results in all segments as home values stabilize and rebound to reflect more normalized, historical levels.

Our success is not without the dedication, determination, integrity, ethics, loyalty and hard work of many. Our employees and agents are the best and our customers truly are our partners. I cannot thank all of you enough for what you contribute to the Old Republic Title family. It is very much appreciated.

Sincerely,

Rande K. Yeager
