

PROTECT YOUR INVESTMENT

The EHP Policy provides the most complete title coverage available, including protection against creditor claims, undisclosed heirs, mistakes in recording, or errors in tax records.

Our basic coverage protects against:

- Someone claiming an ownership interest in your title.
- Leases, contracts or options affecting your title.
- Someone claiming to have rights affecting your title due to forgery or impersonation.
- Someone having a right to limit your use of the land.
- Unmarketability of your title.
- A defective title.

In addition to the coverage provided in the traditional Owner's Policy, the EHP Policy offers new and expanded coverages,* for a total of 32 covered risks. Now you can purchase coverage against losses caused by:

- Zoning violations.
- Subdivision law violations.
- Improvements that encroach into an easement.
- Building permit violations.
- Covenants, conditions and restrictions.
- Lack of vehicular and pedestrian access.
- Supplemental assessments arising as a result of construction or transfer prior to the policy date.
- Damage to your house caused from someone with easement rights.
- Someone refuses to buy your land because your neighbors' structures are on your land.
- Your house or lawn and trees are being damaged by someone with rights to dig a well or mine.

* Some coverages are subject to deductibles & liability caps.

The EHP Policy provides more coverage than ever before. Now you can have the confidence and peace of mind that your title is protected, thereby increasing the resale potential of your home by insuring additional title risks. Old Republic Title offers more coverage, more protection, and more peace of mind.

COVERAGE INCREASES AUTOMATICALLY

“How am I protected as my property increases in value?”

Your EHP Policy will automatically increase by 10% in value each year for the first five years (up to 150%) to help cover increases due to inflation.

Be sure to discuss the benefits of the EHP Policy with your title agent or attorney.

Old Republic Title offers the superior protection of ALTA's Homeowner's Policy of Title Insurance (EHP), delivering more complete risk coverage, which translates to greater peace of mind for new home buyers.

Buying a new home is one of life's most gratifying experiences and your biggest investment. As you approach closing day, however, all those details can be very overwhelming. You might easily overlook the single most important step in the entire process – the purchase of title insurance on your wonderful new home.

WHAT IS TITLE?

Title is the legal evidence, of right, that a person has to the ownership and possession of land. Since it is possible that someone other than the seller has a legal right to the property you're buying, the premium coverage offered by the EHP Policy provides you added peace of mind.

There can be any number of problems that remain undisclosed even after the most careful search of public records. These hidden "defects" are very dangerous and sometimes are not discovered for months or even years after you purchase your home. You could be forced to spend substantial money on a legal defense to protect your rights. The EHP Policy helps protect you against losses and defects and provides legal defense for coverage risks.

GET THE RIGHT TITLE INSURANCE

Your lender only requires that you purchase a Loan Policy. However, that policy only ensures the lender has a valid, enforceable lien on the property. It does not protect you! The EHP Policy, on the other hand, is designed to protect you from title discrepancies.

HOW MUCH DOES TITLE INSURANCE COST?

The single premium is directly related to the value of your home. Typically, it is less expensive than your annual auto insurance. It is a one-time-only expense, paid when you purchase your home. Yet it continues to provide complete coverage for as long as you or your heirs own the property.
