

Kevin T. Pogoda, Esq.
Assistant Vice President, Northern Virginia State Manager,
Old Republic National Title Insurance Company

Born in Santa Monica, California, Kevin Pogoda grew up in Southern California. A graduate from the University of California at Berkeley with degrees in Rhetoric (honors) and Legal Studies (high honors), Kevin completed his law school education at the Santa Clara University School of Law in 1994.

After law school, Kevin worked in several firms located in New Jersey, Virginia and the District of Columbia. While in private practice, Kevin's experience included SEC compliance, Indian gaming law, commercial litigation, labor and employment law, and not-for-profit litigation. Kevin has taken and passed the bar exams for California, New Jersey, Virginia and Maryland.

In 1998, Kevin began his career as a settlement attorney at a prominent settlement company located in Annandale, Virginia. While in that position, Kevin performed approximately 3,000 settlements and focused on 1031 Exchanges and resolving title issues. Since May 2006, Kevin has joined Old Republic National Title Insurance Company as Assistant Vice President and Northern Virginia State Manager and as such oversees the Company's operations for Virginia.

Kevin has been married to Jennifer since 1999 and has three children: Lydia, Joseph and Abigail.