New! High Quality E&O Coverage for Title Agents

Old Republic Announces High Quality Errors & Omissions Coverage For Title Agents

We are pleased to announce a new initiative to enhance our title agents' business success. The initiative stems from our long term interest in providing the finest service available to Old Republic Title Insurance Group's ("ORTIG") agents. We are offering our agents a substantial opportunity to apply for new, state-of-the-art Errors and Omissions ("E&O") coverage. The policy will be issued by an A rated property and liability insurance subsidiary of Old Republic General Insurance Group ("ORGIG"). All services connected with this insurance program will be administered by ORTIG'S wholly-owned National Title Agent's Services Company ("NATAESCO").

The E&O policy has been designed by title industry experts for title industry experts. It is intended to offer premium coverage's supported with exceptional service to our agents. To this end NATAESCO has created a "Fast Track" application process that will assure our agents both expedited approvals and most favorably competitive premium quotes. In short, we're certain that you will find the E&O coverage and NATAESCO's service to be uniquely tailored to your needs.

To get things going, you can reach NATAESCO directly or through your chosen insurance broker or agent by calling (844) 628-2372 or send an email to info@NATAESCO.com where you will find a NATAESCO representative ready to address your questions and help you apply for coverage. Alternatively you may begin the application process by visiting our especially designed website at www.NATAESCO.com.
