

Real Estate Title Insurance Company is established in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

1907

Minnesota Title becomes one of the first title insurance companies to cross state lines.

1929

The company rebrands itself as Title Insurance Company of Minnesota, better known as Minnesota Title, with $1 million in total assets.

Old Republic International's common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE:ORI).

1978

Minnesota Title is acquired by Old Republic International Corporation.

The agent website, StarsLink, is launched to house all agent service offerings.

1990

A+

Three Old Republic Title Insurance Group subsidiaries become the first title insurance companies to receive claims-paying ability ratings from an independent rating agency and achieved A+ evaluations from Standard & Poor's.

1992

Minnesota Title changes its name to OLD REPUBLIC NATIONAL TITLE INSURANCE COMPANY

The agent website, StarsLink, is launched to house all agent service offerings.

2003

2007

Agents have the ability to pull policy jackets electronically through ezJacket.

Old Republic Title moves its corporate headquarters to Tampa, Florida.

2012

Shared Success provides customer service, sales and industry-specific training to title agencies of all sizes.

The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) names Pavaso as a participant for its eClosing pilot program.

2014

2016

Old Republic Title introduces its Authorized Agent program.

ORSigningPro™ is launched to provide convenient access to a panel of fully vetted signing professionals.

ezMarket™ launches, providing agents the ability to customize video and print materials.

2018

The company's Rate CalculatOR app is published in Apple iTunes and Google Play.

2019

Old Republic Title introduces ezShare, a fast and convenient way for agents to build their social media presence.

