SUPPORTING TITLE AGENTS FOR

OVER A CENTURY

1907

The company rebrands itself as Title Insurance Company of Minnesota, better known as Minnesota Title. with $1 million in total assets.

Minnesota Title becomes one of the first title insurance companies to cross state lines.

1938

Minnesota Title is acquired by Old Republic International Corporation.

Old Republic International's common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE:ORI).

1990

Three Old Republic Title Insurance Group subsidiaries become the first title insurance companies to receive claims-paying ability ratings from an independent rating agency and achieved A+ evaluations from Standard & Poor's.

The agent website, StarsLink, is launched to house all agent service offerings.

2003

Minnesota Title changes its name to

Agents have the ability to pull policy jackets electronically through ezJacket.

Old Republic Title moves its corporate headquarters to Tampa, Florida.

2012

Shared Success provides customer service, sales and industry-specific training to title agencies of all sizes.

The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) names Pavaso as a participant for its eClosing pilot program.

Old Republic Title introduces its Authorized Agent program.

ORSigningPro is launched to provide convenient access to a panel of fully vetted signing professionals.

2016

2019

The company's Rate CalculatOR app is published in Apple iTunes and Google Play.

ezMarket launches, providing agents the ability to customize video and print materials.

2018

Old Republic Title introduces ezShare, a fast and convenient way for agents to build their social media presence.

Refined over the years, Shared Success rebrands as Agency University, which provides an array of business-building, training and educational programming to title agents.

ezLearning launches, providing agents the opportunity to take online accredited and non-credit educational courses 24/7.

🖵 ez Learning