

1907 Real Estate Title Insurance Company is established in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

1929 The company rebrands itself as Title Insurance Company of Minnesota, better known as Minnesota Title, with $1 million in total assets.

1938 Minnesota Title becomes one of the first title insurance companies to cross state lines.

1978 Minnesota Title is acquired by Old Republic International Corporation.

1990 Old Republic International's common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE:ORI).

1992 Three Old Republic Title Insurance Group subsidiaries become the first title insurance companies to receive claims-paying ability ratings from an independent rating agency and achieved A+ evaluations from Standard & Poor's. A+

2003 The agent website, StarsLink, is launched to house all agent service offerings.

2007 Agents have the ability to pull policy jackets electronically through ezJacket.

2012 Shared Success provides customer service, sales and industry-specific training to title agencies of all sizes.

2014 The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) names Pavaso as a participant for its eClosing pilot program.

2016 Old Republic Title introduces its Authorized Agent program.

2016 The company's Rate CalculatOR app is published in Apple iTunes and Google Play.

2018 ezMarket launches, providing agents the ability to customize video and print materials.

2019 Old Republic Title introduces ezShare, a fast and convenient way for agents to build their social media presence. ezShare

2021 ezLearning launches, providing agents the opportunity to take online accredited and non-credit educational courses 24/7.

2021 Refined over the years, Shared Success rebrands as Agency University, which provides an array of business-building, training and educational programming to title agents. 